

GERMAN INTERIOR MINISTRY COVID 19 REPORT RAISES SERIOUS ISSUES

By Joseph P. Farrell, 4 June 2020

.....Now, here's the gist of the story: some documents were leaked from the German Interior Ministry, and those leaked documents make some rather interesting points:

Germany's federal government and mainstream media are engaged in damage control after a report that challenges the established Corona narrative leaked from the interior ministry.

Some of the report key passages are:

- The dangerousness of Covid-19 was overestimated: probably at no point did the danger posed by the new virus go beyond the normal level.
- The people who die from Corona are essentially those who would statistically die this year, because they have reached the end of their lives and their weakened bodies can no longer cope with any random everyday stress (including the approximately 150 viruses currently in circulation).
- Worldwide, within a quarter of a year, there has been no more than 250,000 deaths from Covid-19, compared to 1.5 million deaths [25,100 in Germany] during the influenza wave 2017/18.
- The danger is obviously no greater than that of many other viruses. There is no evidence that this was more than a false alarm.
- A reproach could go along these lines: During the Corona crisis the State has proved itself as one of the biggest producers of Fake News.

So far, so bad. But it gets worse.

The report focuses on the “manifold and heavy consequences of the Corona measures” and warns that these are “grave”.

More people are dying because of state-imposed Corona-measures than they are being killed by the virus.

The reason is a scandal in the making:

A Corona-focused German healthcare system is postponing life-saving surgery and delaying or reducing treatment for non-Corona patients.

Berlin in Denial Mode. The scientists fight back.

Initially, the government tried to dismiss the report as “the work of one employee”, and its contents as “his own opinion” – while the journalists closed ranks, no questions asked, with the politicians.

But the 93-pages report titled “Analysis of the Crisis Management” has been drafted by a scientific panel appointed by the interior ministry and composed by external medical experts from several German universities.

The report was the initiative of a department of the interior ministry called Unit KM4 and in charge with the “Protection of critical infrastructures”. (Emphasis added)

The article continues by noting that the report has called for demands that the Interior Ministry respond to the report's conclusions.

It's with the "conclusions between the lines" however, that I am concerned here, and with a bit of our daily dose of high octane speculation. Notably, the report raises the same issues about the Fauci-Lieber-Wuhan-Baal Gates virus hysteria narrative that the alternative media in the USA and elsewhere has been raising, but in this case, it's German professors and physicians raising them in an official German Interior Ministry report, a report which, one gathers, the German government was at pains to suppress and withhold from the public. That consideration brings me to one of the points in the report, that the German federal government was itself "one of the biggest producers of Fake News." Ponder that for a moment. The implications that fall out from it are that the narrative was a global effort; like Dr. Fauci, the narrative flip-flops more than a grounded mackerel on a moonlit beach, and that indicates some coordination. The report is implying - though fairly clearly - that the exaggerated numbers and death predictions were not only lies, they were an agenda, and that the "cure" - "social distancing," masks and the whole set of memes - was as bad if not worse than the actual virus itself. And the government of Angela Merkel was complicit in all of it.

The other thing that falls out of the report is that something is clearly "up" in Germany. The agenda of Mr. Globaloney and his lackeys - the Baal Gateses, the central bank welfare-warfare model, and so on - is clearly being challenged by someone in that country. After all, we've seen two astonishing decisions from the "Kardinals of Karlsruhe," the German Constitutional Court, striking down European Union patent regulations and then challenging the authority of the European Central Bank. Now this. In the USA, just as the virus narrative was beginning to fizzle, voila! A new crisis in the murder of Mr. Floyd.
